

“Life’s most persistent and urgent question is,
“What are you doing for others?”

Martin Luther King, Jr.
Civil Rights Activist
(1929–1968)

Every person has the power to change a life. Every time you lend a listening ear, you change someone’s life. Every time you offer a hand of help, you change someone’s life. Every time you offer empathetic presence to someone in pain, you change a life. Every time you seek to understand a difficult situation with another, there is the potential to change a life.

In so many ways, “We make the healing presence of God known,” in our hearts by first asking the question, “How can I help you? How can I be a blessing in this situation?”

Thank you for all the ways you lead with these sacred questions.
